What Do We Need From You?

It does not take long and it saves a lot of time in the long term. It helps us to determine the type of company you are, and what level of support you need.

We have made this document as simple as possible. In just a couple of pages you will find that it helps you just as much as helps us.

As a valued partner you will be more than just another customer to us. We will do everything in our power to help make our partnership a success.

Welcome to the Family

An essential exercise for your key staff members. You have the opportunity to see 'real life' applications and ask questions.

Software, support and training all bundled up in one low investment. Essential if you are serious about Digital Signage.

What Do We Give You?

At the beginning of our partnership you will need quality support as you discover the benefits or Acquire's products and services.

Here you will find things to help you sell: Presentations, logos (for your website and documents), photos of projects etc.

For every sale you make we will allocate marketing funds to help grow your customer base (see account manager for details).

Free technical support

Access to the 'partner' section of our web site

Access to the reseller file repository

Competitive discounts

Cooperative marketing funds

Here you will find things to support you: manuals, fact sheets, demo projects, demo content, 'How To' help documents, a 'knowledge base' and much more...

Dependant on your position in the Channel Structure (slide 7), you will receive a competitive discount from the MSRP. We will also support you with 'project pricing'.
